You mention about there being a recently published Beale genealogy, I wonder if you are referring to the one listed in the Institute's list of new acquisitions a month or so ago. If so, I have had it and it pertains to another line of Beales than those descended from Thos. Beale and wife, Alice, from Weststone, England, about 1640 to York County, Va. All the Va. Beale I've located thus far are from this latter couple. However, it isn't the publication to which you have reference, please let me know about the one you mean.

It is at all possible for you to give me this material prior to September 1st, I shall appreciate the courtesy very much. I am leaving on that date for a trip to Washington, D. C., for further research and unless its necessary, I'd rather not make the trip to Southampton. It will be out of my route and therefore, expensive and as my finances are not in shape for additional expenses, have to cut where possible.

I am enclosing my check for $6.00 and when you have used that up, I'll have to quit, for the time being anyway. I am most interested in the Southampton family so would suggest that you get all you can on that line first and then if there is any left for the Gurly research, get what is possible.

Thanking you a lot for your assistance and hoping that I may hear from you soon, I am,

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Please pardon my seeming negligence in not letting you hear from me upon receipt of the papers you sent me prior to my departure East but time was flying, so it seemed, and it was the hour of leaving before I realized it. I had hoped to get to Smithfield but again time didn't permit, much to my regret, so I am writing you to say thank you now.

While in Richmond at the State Library I found the following wills given for the Beales (various spellings) of Southampton, Isle of Wight Counties and I'd like to have abstracts made of them:

After checking the inventories of the various Beales listed above, if there isn't any identification regarding their families, no need to abstract them.

I am enclosing my sketch of the Southampton and Isle of Wight Beales as it seems it would be according to material available. You may check them with the data you find on record and it will make your research easier.

From your Isle of Wight Marriages I have obtained the generations marked with red;
Benj. Beale, Sr., of Isle of Wight of County, Va. md ... ..

X A1 Benj. Beal Jr., died 1713, md 1689 Martha, dau Jno Neville

X B1 John Beel of Southampton, died 1769 (have abstract of his will), bought land in 1721 from Francis Bracey in Isle of Wight Co, md 1745 Patience Mayo, dau of Wm. Mayo, Sr., of the Lower Parish and wife Isabel, Joyner.

C1 John Beel of St. Luke's Parish, died 1777, md Liddia Jonnston, dau of Benj. Jonnston of Southampton, who died 1767, and wife Mary .....

D1 Drewry Beale, d intestate 1818, md Mary, dau Edmund Spencer of St. Luke's Parish who died 1784 and wife, Mary .....

E1 Jessie Drew Beale md Margaret P. Lamb of Petersburg, Va.
and moved to N. C.

D2 Burwell Beale

D3 John Beale

C2 Joshua Beale md Mary ..... (believe I have located his descendants in Miss.

C3 Patience Beale

C4 Lydia Beale

C5 Abigail Beale

C6 Temperance Beale md ..... Woodward

C7 ... .. Beale md Wm. Fowler

C8 ..... Beale md Richard Beel

B2 Rachel Beale md 1744 Nicholas Dixon, son Thos and Mary Dixon

B3 Benj. Beal III, md 1748, Lydia, dau of Abraham Rickes

C1 Mary Beal md 1780 Wm. Parker.

A2 Mary Beale md 1680 John Luter

At Windsor, Va., there is a Wm. Fletcher Beale who is the son of Samuel S.
Beale who was the son of Wm. Beale who lived near Franklin, Southampton County, Va.
Wonder if he might belong to the above line?

Wonder if there is any way of determining who the first Benjamin Beale of Isle of Wight County might have been?

From D1 thru to the present generation I obtained the material from Phelan Beale who is a descendant so it is authentic. However, Mr. Beale knew nothing prior to Drewry Beale and Mary Spencer.

From the will of John Beall of St. Luke's Parish, 1778, I learned that Drewry was his son as was also Burwell and John and wife was Liddia.

From the will of John Beel of Southampton, 1769, I learned that he had a son
John, as well as the other children given above.

From the marriage date of Benj. Beal, Jr., 1689, it would seem that his birth occurred about 1665 which would give an approximate birth date for his father Benj. Beal, Sr., of Isle of Wight, about 1635. Therefore, it seems impossible that this Benj. Sr., might belong to the family of Coltnos. Beale of York County, Va. who did not come to this country until about 1640 and it is presumeable that Benj. Sr. was an English emigrant himself. Wonder if there would be any land grants or patents that would determine this fact for us?

Right now I can not think of anything further that might throw some light on the matter but should I, later, I'll send it on to you for whatever assistance it may be in the research.

I wonder if there are old parish registers that would give births, deaths and marriages for their members. Sometimes these are the best references possible.

Please advise an approximate charge for this research.

Thanks a lot for the assistance rendered and with best wishes, I am,

Yours truly,

Frances Beal S. Hodges

Mrs. L. L. Chapman,
Smithfield, Va.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

It has been many years since you did some research on the Beale families of Isle of Wight and of Southampton counties for me and now here I am again.

Naturally this genealogy is far from being complete but after some 25 years research, and considering the fact that I am not getting younger, I decided that I had better get this genealogy published for it would be nothing short of a crime to permit all the material I have to be lost to posterity.

Recently I had a letter from Mrs. Constance Beale Shuford of Arden, N.C., and in same she enclosed a copy of a letter to Dr. Tyler written in 1928 by her Grandmother, Mrs Chas. Willing Beale of Arden, who it seems had spent some 50 years doing Beale research only to see it all go up in smoke when their home in Arden was burned. Thus, this letter to Dr. Tyler was written from memory, rather rambling so that I had to outline as I read to get some coherency out of it but in same she mentioned a fact that I had never heard of before and about which I am now interested.

She wrote that one Charles Beale of Richmond Co., Va., sold his property in 1709 and with a Joseph Beale who also owned adjacent property migrated to Surry County. Beyond the birth date of Charles as record in N. Farnham Parish Register of Richmond, Oct. 20, 1678, I have been unable to find anything else pertaining to him. It would seem possible that he did leave Richmond County and he could have gone to Surry, so I would appreciate a run of whatever records Surry County has to ascertain if Charles bought lands after his arrival in 1709-10. Also if a Joseph Beale bought lands at the same time.

At the time you did the research for me, you started the marriage records in Isle of Wight in Deed Bk 1, P 22 with Benj. Beal, Jr., 1689, and Martha Neville, dau of John Neville.

And the wills began with Benj. Beale, Sr., dated Feb. 12, 1712/13 probated April 27, 1713, Isle of Wight Co., W & D Bk- 2, P 358. From this I concluded that this was beginning of the records and the first entries made to the Beale families.

In Southampton County, the marriage record began with Benj. Beale & Elizabeth Cobb, 2-15-1717 (50) and Ministers' Returns, Burwell Beale & Cherry Wilson, 6-13-1784.

For the wills of Southampton, John Beal, dated Jan. 20, 1769 & probated March 9, 1769. Is this the beginning date of the wills of Southampton County?

Another item of interest to me from this letter of Mrs. Beale to Dr. Tyler: The Beale family had estate in Nansemond Co., Va., as well as St. Croix, V. I., where their chief estates were Jerusalem & Paradise....I wonder if Jerusalem, Southampton Co., Va., was built upon their estate & name for the St. Croix estate? ..... Have you ever heard of this estate or plantation in Southampton County?

And do you have any knowledge of the records in Nansemond Co? One George Beale II married 1793, his 4th cousin, Mary Dixon, a descendant of Ruth Beale, brother of our Thomas, whose gr-gr-grandson was George II. Is this marriage record there?

Among the records you sent to me originally, there were a number of Dixons mentioned, witnesses & securities, etc., but nothing that would identify them for me.

Mrs. Beale's letter says this Mary Dixon, was a granddaughter of Anthony Tucker, near Ham ton. Maybe this will help identify Mary Dixon.

Anyway, I am most anxious for this new information if I can get it as I am trying to get the master copy to the printer by Feb. 15th, at the latest. So your assistance will be very much appreciated.

Sincerely yours

Frances B. Hodges

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I did not mean to be so negligent in acknowledging receipt of the data obtained by you but illness in the family has kept me so busy that I've not had a minute in which to indulge in personal affairs such as genealogy. So please accept my apologies and thanks for your co-operation as well as interest.

I am writing again to see if you can help me to find out anything further about the Beale genealogy compiled by Prof. Wilson for Mrs. McLean of Washington. I wrote Mrs. McLean and was advised by her Secretary that Mrs. McLean could not give the desired information and had lost track of Prof. Wilson. This was, more or less, a confirmation of the compilation of the genealogy but did me no good whatsoever. I wonder if you could learn, from whatever source you heard of the history, where a copy may be found. The Congressional Library does not have one. If I could just get my hands on this Prof. Wilson, it would probably mean clearing up for many Beale descendants of a line that remains up to date ~~untrue~~ unauthenticated. Or if I could even find a copy of the book in the possession of a person who is not so selfish as Mrs. McLean is, they would probably lend their assistance.

Mr. E. L. Beale of Franklin, Va., is not co-operating with me and Mr. Cyrus W. Beale of Richmond is obstaining and straightening out the Southampton and Isle of Wight Beales and I've advised each of them to call on you for whatever assistance they may need. I presume Mr. E. L. Beale will be the one to cover the counties familiar with these families as he is conveniently located to do so. Anyway here's wishing you luck for it means a lot to me to have their able assistance.
